

African Industrial Development and European Union Co-operation

Prospects for a reengineered partnership

Edited by Francis A.S.T. Matambalya

Contents

List of figures	xviii
List of tables	xx
Notes on contributors	xxiii
Acknowledgements	xxvi
List of abbreviations and acronyms	xxviii
Notations and variables used in various estimations	xxxiii

PART I

Contextualising industrialisation	1
1 Leveraging African–European Union co-operation for Africa’s industrialisation: an introduction	3
FRANCIS A.S.T. MATAMBALYA AND MASSATA CISSÉ
2 Theoretical arguments for industrialisation-driven economic growth and development	30
TOMMASO CIARLI AND MICHELE DI MAIO
3 The urge to industrialise African countries: which lessons can be learnt from the empirics of the process?	69
FRANCIS A.S.T. MATAMBALYA
4 Integration in the global industrial economy of the African and comparator regions	87
FRANCIS A.S.T. MATAMBALYA

PART II

Integration of industrialisation in the regional and pan-African development agenda 129

- 5 Integration of industrialisation in sub-regional development agendas: overviews of African Regional Economic Communities 131

FRANCIS A.S.T. MATAMBALYA

- 6 Pan-African and multilateral schemes and Africa's industrialisation: synthesis of substance and legacy 163

FRANCIS A.S.T. MATAMBALYA

PART III

Country case studies of integration of industrialisation in the national development agenda 185

- 7 Integration of the industrialisation agenda in the national development strategy: lessons from the Federal Republic of Ethiopia 187

KIBRE MOGES BELETE

- 8 Integration of the industrialisation agenda in the national development strategy: lessons from Namibia 230

HENNING MELBER

PART IV

The industrial development agenda in the African–European Union co-operation arrangements 249

- 9 Industrial development in Sub-Saharan African–European Union co-operation arrangements 251

FRANCIS A.S.T. MATAMBALYA

- 10 Union du Maghreb Arabe–European Union industrial co-operation: achievements, limitations, and way forward 266

FRANCIS A.S.T. MATAMBALYA AND IMEN BELHADJ

PART V

Pathways to industrialisation and economic growth and development of African countries: digest of stylised facts and considerations for the formulation of the development agenda	291
--	-----

11 Pathways to Africa’s industrialisation and economic growth and development: a digest of stylised ideas and facts	293
FRANCIS A. S. T. MATAMBALYA

12 Pathways to industrialisation in Africa: key considerations and elements of a hybrid strategy	334
FRANCIS A. S. T. MATAMBALYA

PART VI

Harnessing Africa–European Union partnership for Africa’s industrialisation: policy implications and way forward	351
---	-----

13 Reengineering Africa–EU partnership for industrialisation: beacons of an Integrated Industrial Development Agenda for Africa	353
FRANCIS A. S. T. MATAMBALYA

14 Reengineering Africa–EU partnership for industrialisation: implications for the management of the development agenda	387
FRANCIS A. S. T. MATAMBALYA

Appendix 1: comparable growth of GDP and value added by economic activity, 1970–2010	397
---	-----

Appendix 2: comparable structures of merchandise exports	401
---	-----

Appendix 3: trends in MVA as a percentage of GDP, 1991–2007, selected groups of countries	404
--	-----

Appendix 4: world exports by main product categories, in US$ million	405
--	-----

Index	406
--------------	-----